

Voices of the People
Society, Politics and Public Opinion in Guinea-Bissau
Miguel Carter and Carlos Cardoso
Editors

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Miguel Carter and Carlos Cardoso

Part I. Voices of the People: The Study and Results

1. Public opinion study in Guinea-Bissau: Highlights and methodology
Miguel Carter
2. Public Life: Democracy, civic engagement, and political parties
Miguel Carter
3. Social attitudes: Gender equality and interpersonal trust
Miguel Carter
4. Ethnicity, politics, and religion in a heterogenous society
Miguel Carter
5. Popular perceptions about politics and society
Miguel Carter
6. Public opinion in Guinea-Bissau and West Africa
Miguel Carter

Part II. Analysis and Reflections

Society

7. Ethnicity, religion, and the popular history of power
Toby Green
8. Life conditions, territory, and social coexistence
Miguel Carter, Carlos Cardoso and Nafiou Inoussa
9. Gender relations
Birgit Embaló

Politics and the State

10. Big man politics and regime instability
Miguel Carter
11. State fragility and corruption
Carlos Cardoso and Ismael Sadilú Sanhá
12. Political parties, elections, and citizen participation
Rui Jorge Semedo and Paulina Mendes

Conclusion

13. State-society disjuncture

Philip J. Havik and Joshua B. Forrest

Postscript

The saga to publish the Voices of the People

Miguel Carter

About the authors